Vote Early and Often for Your Favorite.

Rules Governing the Contest for the Complimentary Trip to the World's Fair.

The Republican having decided, as already announced, to send at its own expense to the World's fair some salesmen, saleslady, type writer or stenographer employed in Arizona, makes public the following rules governing the contest.

Railroad and sleeping car fare will be provided as well as rooms and board at the best hotels, and all expenses of the trip, including incidentals and admission to the fair, will be paid by the Republican. All arrangements will be under the direction of the Republican management, and the details of the trip will be carefully attended to. The trip will occupy not more than a month, and may be made at any time during the fair.

The selection of the person is left to the readers of the Republican who can indicate their preference by ballot. No one employed by or in any way connected with the Republican will be allowed to take part in the contest.

The accompanying ballot must be cut out and voted before its expiration.
The contest will close at 6 p. m. of Dec.
31, 1892, and the announcement of the winner will be made on Sunday, Jan. 1, 1893.

Rules of the Contest.

1. Any one is entitled to vote as often as they can obtain a copy of the Republican containing the official ballot.

2. Cut the ballot out, write in the the office at the rear of the Hartford bank. Envelope on the end of the envelope: "Republican Voting Contest."

3. Vote for the same person as often as you choose.

4. Only one person can be voted for in one ballot. If a ballot contains the names of more than one person it will not be counted.

5. Every copy of the Daily Republican until Dec. 31, will contain the ballot. See that every ballot is voted before its expiration.

6. The person receiving the largest number of votes will be given the complimentary trip to the World's fair.
A ballot must be sent within 15 days after they appear in the Daily Republican. Ballots will not be counted after that time, except when they are from out-of-town points, when they may be longer will be allowed.

7. Ballots must be actually cut out of the Republican and can be obtained in no other way.

favorite. Some person will be afforded a pleasant vacation, free of expense, and it may be your friend.
